

You are by law supposed to protect us from media giants like Sinclair; if the FCC does not do it, who will? We are senior citizens who understand history and we do not like what is happening in this great nation where ethics and legalities no longer seem to matter.